The great Clever in action at The Hackney

Matthew "Clever" Kildea is an undefeated former player, premierships assistant coach and general know-it-all who seems to have an opinion on everything!

Clev's Corner

Congratulations to Shaun McFarlane who made his A-grade debut on the weekend. With a late withdrawal from the A's, Shaun was plucked from the B-grade warmup at 12:05 and told the news. In 2014 Shauny was cooking pasta and winning D-grade flags. In 2017 he's selling houses and playing A-grade. A strong preseason, enthusiasm to learn and a little less time on the massage bench was all coming together when Macca's marked on the forward flank. Shaun went back and launched one on his left from beyond the 50m arc that should have seen him join the first-kick-first-goal club, but for the fact no teammate was on the line to provide a shepherd.

One for the Record Books as the B-grade took advantage of the School Holidays to inject some youth into the side and grabbed a couple of kids. Year 12 Oscar Chapman lead from the front with another BOG while year 11 Jack Heard also made the votes in his first game for the Old Reds. On the back of these two, it was the youngest known B-grade side ever, with an average age of just 21 years and 299 days.

Unfortunately I need to dish out another Best Wishes, this time to George Burford who after nearly 2 years out of the game, returned for just 2 weeks before popping his shoulder. Thanks to the green whistle, George was flying high like he was back on the shoulders of Gepps Cross's centre half forward.

Our WTF moment this week comes from the C-grade, who thanks to a few late changes, were one short Saturday. A spare player arrived at the ground, complete with playing attire, but was turned away, and Coach Brealey elected to play one short. Early injuries to Alex Butenko and Harry Collison compounded this confusing decision and Goodwood ran out the game much stronger than the short-handed Reds, with the 7 point deficit at the main break blowing out to a whopping 55 points by the final siren.

Finally, it was great to see the D-grade record another big win on the weekend, this time Daniel Fry doing the damage with 8 goals from 15 scoring shots. The D's are now in the five and putting together an all-star line-up. Coach Marsh has them odds-on to win the flag, paying just $1.55. Looking at the squad, it's hard to argue!
