The great Clever in action at The Hackney

Matthew "Clever" Kildea is an undefeated former player, premierships assistant coach and general know-it-all who seems to have an opinion on everything!

Clev's Corner

On Sunday afternoon, a contingent of roughly 60 Reds converged on The Parade for another instalment of the PAOCFC Annual Beer Pong Championships. The Playing group would like to once again thank Tom Brinsley for putting up The Light Impact's car park as a suitable venue for a few games of pong, and a hell of a lot of associated debauchery from the animals that attended.

Now before any of you get too concerned, don't worry, there won't be any photos of the Matchy's record breaking effort, the "Stunts" performed, or even the Runaway Bride checking what was under their dress. But it would be remiss not to include a couple of shots from the day. The below photos were taken of the two teams that made it through to the final. Both shots taken BEFORE the final:

Michael Hackman and Andrew Heitmman took on Jack Latchford and Will Dalwood in the 2017 Grand Final of the PAOCFC Beer Pong Championship

I'll let you guess which team went on to victory.

Best dress once again was collected by James 'Indi' Dalwood and Matty 'Short Round' Faull, well played lads.

Anyway, back to the footy and we hit some finals action this coming Saturday with the D-grade getting us underway in the elimination final against CLG.

The Reds have managed their squad to perfection this season, with as many as 20 of the 25 to take to the field this Saturday having played 9 or fewer C4 games this season. The fresher legs are sure to give our lads the advantage, so if you're not at Park 9 watching the Reds take on SPOC in the three main grades, make sure you get around the D-grade lads who would love your support.
