The great Clever in action at The Hackney

Matthew "Clever" Kildea is an undefeated former player, premierships assistant coach and general know-it-all who seems to have an opinion on everything!

Clev's Corner

It was certainly a weekend of sunshine and lollipops for The Reds, and even Mother Nature got in on the act, ensuring the heavy downpour started and finished during the half time break of the As allowing the game to finish beneath a rainbow Lesley Gore would be proud of.

After a good rev-up last week, it was great to see the boys react well on the weekend, with The Reds taking chocolates throughout the day. The A-grade dominated with a 51 point victory over Port Districts and the B's led by 49 points at the final break, before taking their foot off the pedal. The C-grade piled on 54 points and the D's capitalised on a tweaked game plan to turn a 13 point half time lead into a 62 point victory with the use of fresher legs.

It was simple footy for PAOC in the main game, with JDags dominating the taps we were happy to control the tempo of the game and grind out the win. Hayden Jolly's best on ground performance included unleashing a 65m barrel, but Nick Rees' drop punt goal from 58m out to clear the line in the D-grade let Pulteney know early this wasn't a usual C4 side they were playing. It was some familiar names returning to the side, with Prest, Martin and JR Thomas all pulling on the boots for the first time this season. JR the main target up forward added another six to his career goal tally.

JR wasn't the only returning forward on the weekend; 'Fat Hands' Hannemann came back from hip surgery to slot 4 goals in a half for the B's and Mozzie managed to sneak his way forward & kick 4 from the wing in a performance that not only got under the radar for the opposition, but also the PAOC coaches who forgot to include him in the votes!

But for mine, the most noticeable item was Tom Brinsley finding a way to become just about the highest paid player in Amateur Footy history, well, at least at The Reds. Without a natural match up against SPOC, a migraine at Salisbury North and then Willy Dags landing on his ankle in the 3rd minute of the first qtr on Saturday, Bomber has played a combined 19 minutes over the last 3 weeks. His weekly payment of a $30 Hackney Voucher sees him receiving $285 an hour, the equivalent of a full time worker on $550,000 per annum!
