The great Clever in action at The Hackney

Matthew "Clever" Kildea is an undefeated former player, premierships assistant coach and general know-it-all who seems to have an opinion on everything!

Clev's Corner

Two and Two for the reds over the weekend, with the book ends getting the job done. Jake Pitt's bag of 8, including a premature celebration was impressive, but it was Scot Tyndall who was the talk of the town following his haul of 15 majors.

To celebrate his monumental haul, we've sought 15 comments from the community (or made them up on their behalf).

D-grader midfielder Mark McGregor: To be honest, he was getting good supply.

Adelaide Crow Josh Jenkins: With 11 of your 15 coming from within the goal square let me just say this; back off mate, everyone knows I'm the goal square sausage roll king!

D-grade coach David Marsh: I tried to drag him after 10 to give others a go, but every time the runner went onto the field, Scot hid behind the point post!

A-grader Jake Pitt: 15 in the D's? What's that worth, like 3 in the A's? Righto, well done champ.

Former AFC and PAOCFC goal kicker Tony Modra: I never kicked a bag for the Reds, but have you sat on Mickey Martin's head?

Teammate Brad Weidenhofer: He only kicked 14, they recorded my goal to him by mistake!

PAOCFC Chairman Michael Siciliano: While some of us moved up the grades to help out the C's, it was great to hear Tyndall elected to remain in the D's and cash in against the bottom side.

D-grade Ruckman Ben 'Juddy' Newbury: Trust him to drag the attention to himself on MY birthday!

PAOCFC goal kicking record holder Nick Brooks: 15 is impressive, but it's not 16 is it.

Teammate Nick 'Skipper' Wilton: He was so good, it was amazing to watch. Reminded me a lot of Alastair Lynch from the Brisbane Lions.

Former teammate Jack Zacker: Dominant performance! I haven't seen anyone hand out such a hiding since Christie Mack and War Machine were in the same room.

Club coach and C grade player Brett Backwell: I'm just glad everyone's talking about this rather than my kick outs in the C's!

D-grader James Turner: 15 goals? Pfft, try having 15 running bounces!

PAOCFC goal kicking legend James 'JR' Thomas: Reminds me a lot of a game I played on the adjacent oval back in 2000 as a 15 year old. I kicked 20 against CBC then sat on the bench for the last quarter.

Teammate Alfie Brown: Hopefully he can take some confidence out of this performance and actually contribute in some of the closer games.
