It was another outstanding effort by the A grade to hold off a fast finishing Walkerville to record our third win in a row for the first time this season. Once again we jumped out of the blocks with energy and intent which enables us to build a strong first quarter foundation. Our midfield came ready to play and dominated both centre bounce and around the ground clearances. The pressure around the ball assisted in our counter attack from half back and also gave our forwards numerous opportunities. The game went goal for goal in the second half and although at time our ball movement looked slightly messy the boys had done enough to hold on for a 2 point win. Our personal from all three areas of the ground have been working extremely well together the last three weeks. We have been able to settle our side down which has had a huge impact on our performances. We face a magnificent challenge against a top three team this week at home. I have asked for a committed effort from the A grade as we look for a strong finish to the season.

Field of Dreams- Report from the 1972 Premiership Reunion

To quote from the Kevin Costner Movie, Field of Dreams – “Build it and he will come”.

So it was on Saturday 21 July 2012. Invites had been sent to as many 1972 registered players as could be found. Invites had also been sent to others involved with PAOCFC immediately pre and post 1972. The weather was perfect after a few wet winter weeks. We were playing Portland so the followers of the Crows who had forsaken a home game could see the Showdown “enemy” jumpers up close. The Reds Marquee provided a perfect setting to watch the games, catch up with old team and school mates, share a meal and a drink.

The day came and across the Adelaide Parklands the past players began to appear. Who is that walking towards the Marquee? Yes it is Owen Stephens (and his wife Ali) from Goolwa. Who is that standing all of a sudden outside the Marquee? Why yes, it is Dean “Bogger” Reichstein who had come over from Melbourne especially for the day. So it went, with many others stirring memories, until, over the course of the day around 50 of us joined together to remember those heady days of the early 70’s. Oldest players from those 1972 Premierships being Vern Drew at 72 and Peter Dunn at 70. Farthest travelled being Brian Hockney and Ian Ide. Grant Woolmore provided excellent camera work and managed to snap pretty well everybody as well as a group photo at half time.

The day was helped by the good nature of all present who were obviously happy to be there and sharing the afternoon with people of a like mind.

The games went to plan and provided great entertainment. Cries of “Red, Red, Red” were heard and we are sure helped cement the victories! The B’s won by 99 points, kicking 15 goals in the 2nd half. The A’s won by 45 points in a best performance of the year. They even provided an all in “melee” at the end of the 1st quarter right in front of the Marquee. It seemed like some of the past player cohort needed to be restrained!

As the game finished we drifted away with a lasting memory of a wonderful day. Some continued on to the nearby Hackney Hotel for the presentations to the 4 winning teams of that day and to be presented to the current players and officials.

Many thanks must go to ResourceCo who were sponsors for Round 14 as well as to the PAOCFC Committee members who set up and ran the day so well. Sponsors T&R Pastoral provided the excellent meat. Coopers Clear was of course the beer of choice (Glenn Cooper being present and a member of the 1972 Premiership A’s). Red and White wine courtesy of Hugo Wines, Wicks Estate, Faraway Hill and Tapestry.

Apologies were received from many who were overseas, interstate or unavoidably prevented from being present. These included Ian Brooks, Trevor Chappell, Bro Clarke, Chris Clarke, Jim Cox, Peter Cox, John Dahlenburg, Grant Dawkins, Colin Dunsford, Mike Gray, Rick Gray, Ian Haines, Gordon Hoad, Ian Hockney, Allan Letcher, Rob Lowe, Tony Penhall, Rick Phillips, Tim Phillips, Peter Thomas, Mike Ricketts, John Rogers, Leigh Smith, Nick Williams, Martin Winter, Rob Shaughnessy and Rick Woollard.

Please excuse any who may have been left off the above lists.

PAOCFC are of course pleased to have as many Old Reds watch games as possible. So please if you have some free time on a Saturday afternoon pop out, make yourself known and have a look at the teams of the day. There are also feature rounds each year so look out for them. You never know who you might run into.

A very sad footnote. On Monday word started to filter through the Princes community that Bill Trengove, who had enjoyed a relaxed time of camaraderie on the Saturday, had passed away. Bill suffered a massive heart attack after a lengthy bike ride on the Sunday. Bill was a solid and high leaping member of the 1972 Premiership A's, Captain of the Club in 1973 and 1974 and from all (his) reports a very fit 63 years old. Our heartfelt thoughts and best wishes go to Bill's wife Helen, his three daughters and all other family members.

Turn to the final page of the newsletter for an outstanding group shot of those in attendance on the day.

Goal Kickers: Scot Tyndall 3, Lucas Lovell 2, Henry Daniel 1, Cameron Lynch 1, Josh Morrell 1, Seb Richards 1

Best Players: Paul-Alexander Politis, Seb Richards, Ben Pearce, Tim Boucaut, Henry Daniel,

The Boys played a solid game but left the gate wide open in the second quarter allowing Walkerville to get 5 goals to our 2 points. This has happened several times this year when our concentration goes astray and the good sides have taken advantage of this. I believe we can beat top sides and have the talent and depth to be successful in the finals but need to stay on track for 4 quarters.

I was very pleased with PA, Sebby and Ben Pearce's games, their presence around the ball and pressure on the opposition was relentless and all battled hard all day. We had more inside 50's than Walkerville but struggled to finish the job with shots at goals. Scotty Tyndall needed support in the air. Henry Daniel's game continues to mature, his ruck work and strong marking around the ground was one of his best performances this year.

Biscuits can play in any position and plays well every week and Saturday tried hard to win possessions, he took a knock in the last quarter but we hope he is ok. Top game Mate. We take on Tea Tree Gully next week at Park 9 and will need to be at our very best to grab the 2 points and to confirm our position on the premiership table.

Saturday was a very important game for the C Grade and unfortunately it is one that got away, I think they got us a on a good day post Old Scholars dinner and with quite a few injuries as well. Having said this; the team we picked to play we picked to win and at quarter time when we were 3 goals up I thought we were in for a good day.

In a reversal of the game at Golden Grove in the first round they just wore us down throughout the game and slowly but surely worked their way to the front and over ran us with 3 goals in the last quarter to win by a goal.

We only managed to score a goal in the last quarter with 50 seconds to play when we got the ball quickly into our forward line and over their zone defence. Despite Sis thinking he had scored the goal to level the scores, it was a great celebration all to no avail there was not enough time on the clock to score again.

I thought the captain's game was excellent Cormac lead from the front and showed his team mates the commitment that is needed to get a victory, also young Drew Clements was un-earthed as an exciting ruck prospect, he gave Bazz and co in the middle first use of the ball all day and won the Under Armour award for the week, well done Drew.
