Clev's Corner

Another week has passed us by and once again there are many stories that could be covered.

- ⇒ Alfie showing his love for Pez to the tune of $3,000 at Friday Night's Player Auction.
- ⇒ Skipper Wilton tearing up the D-floor at the Hackney on Saturday Night.
- ⇒ Or even a few candidates for #clevsclip in Harry Barnes for failing to release last week's newsletter, or the 20 or so flogs who felt it was appropriate to talk throughout pressos!

But on such a huge weekend, it wouldn't be right to talk about anything other than Ladies Day. Amelia Mulcahy forecast showers, but Mother Nature knew better and the rain stayed away. The tents were set up and as the festivities commenced, Sully got us off to the perfect start, bulldozing his way through the middle and the Reds had a goal on the board within a minute. With the smell of lamb chops drifting over the oval at half time we had a cracker on our hands, PAOC holding a 1 point lead. The tents continued to fill and the B-grade didn't disappoint, running out winners by 5 goals.

As the afternoon rolled on, the wines were flowing, the oysters were being devoured and things were perfectly set up for an afternoon of celebrations and fund-raising, with the backdrop of an A-grade victory.

While there were some beautiful behinds in the tent, it was a case of undesirable behinds on field as the A-grade managed just 3 goals and 9 behinds after quarter time. No surprises this just wasn't enough to get the job done.

Ladies Day is about so much more than just a bit of socialising, it's also a great opportunity for the Reds community to give back. In recent years we've seen some wonderful fundraising for some very important causes including BCNA and Little Eddie, and on Saturday it was the Women's and Children's Hospital. I'm not sure what happened on the field on Saturday, but was bringing their A-game in front of 200 ladies just too hard (pardon the pun)? Perhaps next year's fundraising should go towards research of a nasal spray, or little blue pill that can address Performance Anxiety issues in 18-30 year old males!

Thank you!

Without our amazing sponsors, many of whom have contributed for a number of years, we couldn't have had such a successful Ladies Day.

Remember, support those who support the Old Reds!
