Conditions were ideal at Park 9 as the Reds took on PHOS in what promised to be a game of skill and hard running and we also celebrated Will Hugo's 100th game. PHOS had been reasonably competitive in recent weeks and were fighting to get out of the relegation zone so the positions on the ladder were irrelevant. As expected the pace of the game was frenetic and both sides settled into the game quickly scoring freely at both ends. It was one of our better starts for the year kicking 5.4 and we took a slender 9 point lead into the first break.

The second and third terms went basically to script with our midfield starting to get on top lead by Crawford, Hannemann, C.Graetz and Dalwood. Our potency up forward was also a highlight as JR Thomas, Fry and Ashby were getting amongst the goals. We lost Hall and Gazzola to injury in the third term however spirits were good at the final change as we had kicked 12 goals to 7 and lead by 28 points. PHOS had the ability to score quickly which was noted at 3 quarter time however no one could have predicted what was to follow in the final term. A sluggish start by the Reds proved costly as we slowly lost total control of the game and gave PHOS a stiff. The momentum swang and our ability to win the contested ball diminished as PHOS piled on 5.6 in the last to take the victory by 11 points.

A good wake up call for the A grade as we prepare to take on Gepps Cross next week in the last round of the season.

With almost a full squad to choose from we had one of our strongest teams on the park against 4th placed PHOS. This was one of our strongest performances of the year so far and certainly our best performance in the last 6 weeks.

Our attack on the ball and appetite for the contest was excellent. While PHOS matched us in an even first quarter we increased our pressure in the second and capitalised on the oppositions turnovers to create 10 scoring shots to 2 for the quarter.

Our second half was better than the first. We were switched on defensively across the ground, beginning with our backline who were miserly. The mids worked hard both ways as we moved the ball efficiently from defence to attack. Some passages of handball as clean as you will see.

Keeping PHOS scoreless in the last half we were able to pull away and record a big victory. More impressive though was the consistency of our play across the 4 quarters.

Playing up on a windy, sloppy hill top oval at Blackwood proved an interesting challenge. A definite home ground advantage. It took us two quarters to find our bearing so at half time we were trailing by a couple goals.

The 3rd term was probably the best 22 mins we have played for the season as we moved the footy with quick direct movement which caused Blackwood to be chasing Red jumpers for the whole quarter. We slammed home 8 goals for the term while keeping Blackwood scoreless. A great warm up for the weeks to come

Round 18	Q1	Q2	Q3	Q4	Tot
PAOC	3.6	9.8	15.12	18.12	120
Woodville South	2.2	2.3	3.5	6.10	46

Best Players: Andrew Sykes, Nick Pemberton, Scot Tyndall, Tom Prest, Alfie Brown, Matt Davis

The E grade came up against Woodville South in a game we had to win to guarantee third spot and the double chance going into finals.

The boys fought hard in the first quarter to win plenty of the footy but struggled to put it on the scoreboard through bad goalkicking, some awful forward entries and Jonno 'man flu' Waltham manning the pine.

From quarter time onwards the boys turned the possession advantage into some really good footy, to provide an excellent lead up to finals footy. Some of the transition we put on display through the middle quarters showed that on our day we can match it with the best.

Better players included Andrew Sykes who took best afield honors with his smooth moving and precision passing, Tom Prest and Pembo providing plenty of run, carry and long kicking from the back half and Scotty Tyndall who returned to his best marking form, kicking a long awaited bag of five.

Without doubt the highlight was the wayward bounce Umpire Heitmann delivered to start the final quarter. Loved the confidence Heito, just wish the president was on hand to give out his customary spray.

The E grade play Scotch in round one of the finals, an opposition we have split our two regular season games with. Hoping to see plenty of support from the top of the table D grade and others to get the boys over the line and hopefully give us a shot at Pembroke the week after!

JOHN ROBERT WALTHAM – 200TH GAME

In the E's Qualifying Final this Saturday, Johnno will play his 200th game for the Old Reds. He becomes the 43rd player to reach this milestone. His 14 seasons have spanned 19 years. His career began in 1996 while in Year 11 at PAC. After leaving PAC, he resumed playing in 1998 until work commitments took over in 2005. In 2007 he was recruited to play at Scotch OC, but returned to the Reds in 2008. He hung up the boots in 2013, however with the addition of the E Grade, he was coaxed out to play once more as a regular fill-in. In round 1, he along with Mark McGregor and Tyson Smith, became the first Old Reds to play in 5 grades at the Club. This is not his only unique achievement, as along with his three older brothers; Thomas, David and Andrew, in season 2000 while Dave was back from interstate all four brothers, AKA the "Cheese Platter", lined up in the A's. The Waltham brothers have played over 500 games (168 Pando, 75 Dave & 71 King) for the Club, second to the Sanders brother's record of 754 games. Off the field Johnno has been a strong supporter of the Club as a sponsor via his various pubs, the Astor, Seven Stars in the past and more recently the Cumby and the Gallery on Waymouth.

Johnno will be the first to tell you that his sole aim in playing football is to kick as many goals as possible and he won't hesitate to add that he never handballs. That said, when claiming he had given off a handball during a game this season, none of his team mates would believe him, until Cam Lynch backed him up saying "Two players came to him and he had absolutely no choice but to handball to me. I walked into an open goal. He was very reluctant. Was also disappointed after that he had to dish it off." In light of that revelation, where does Johnno sit in relation to Club goal kicking records?

Club Goal Records

Whilst there aren't many details about Club goal kicking totals, the following are some of the larger tallies on record;

100+ Arthur Dawkins, 1937, A Grade, A1 (second to the grade's Leading Goalkicker who kicked 105)

119 Arthur Dawkins, 1940, A Grade, A2 Leading Goalkicker (excludes the Semi Final)

93 Garry Hugo, 1972, A Grade, A3 (total after 13 games prior to going overseas)

86 Rick Phillips, 1978, A Grade, A3

100+ Anthony Thompson, 1994, C & D Grade, A8 & A8 Reserves

110 Anthony Thompson, 1995, C & D Grade, A6 South & A6SR (played 2 games amny weeks)

103 John Waltham, 2001, A Grade, Division 3 (kicked 8 in the Elimination Final to get to 101)

23 David "Burra" Reed, 2003, A Grade, Division 3 (the lowest Club total on record!)

105 John Waltham, 2004, A Grade, Division 3 (kicked his 100th at Norwood Oval during the finals)

95 Nick Brooks, 2013, B, C & D Grade, D2R, A8 & A8R (including finals)

One Thousand!?

Has any player kicked 1000 career goals for the Old Reds? There is no mention in Merv Evans' Club history book (1926-1984) of any long term prolific goal kickers. Unless Johnno can dig out some old trophies or past Club records come to light, we may never know if this milestone has been achieved or is within reach. However, if one was to extrapolate the 499 goals that are on record from 106 of the games he played over 7 seasons, then he must be around 936 goals for the Old Reds. If you include the 38 goals he kicked from his 14 games at Scotch, then he may be very close to 1000 SAAFL goals. Either way, a bit more research needs to be done in that area before any claim is made.

Final Word From His Peers ...

"He also handballed to me earlier this season near goal... I was so shocked that I kicked it out on the full !!! The next time, a few games later, I called for the handball and he just Snarled at me !!!" – Alfie Brown (fellow 2014 E Grade player)

"You sure it wasn't a unicorn? I can't think of any other creature capable of receiving a handball from Johnno..." – JUDDY (fellow 2014 E Grade player)

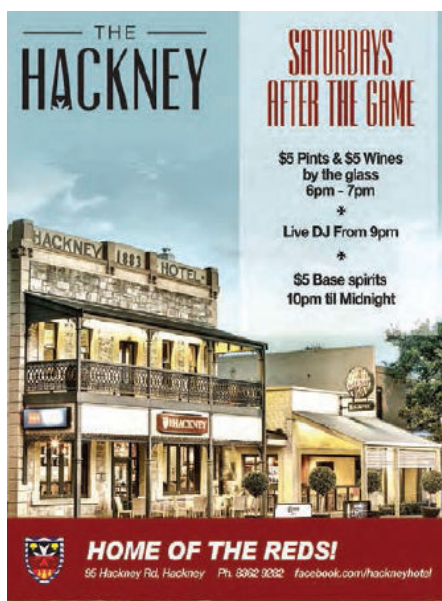

"I kicked 3 goals in my career." – Andrew Waltham (fellow 2004 premiership player)

"I probably goal assisted him more than anyone else over the past 14 years!" – Justin Trim (fellow 2004 premiership player)

"What's a handball?" – Anthony Antonas (fellow 2004 premiership player)

"John-boy would have to have the best worst kick I've seen – I enjoyed every one of the 100's of them that wobbled through each season though..." – Tim Nicholls (fellow 2004 premiership player)

Welcome to the 200 Club John-boy!!
